

NATIONAL WORK ZONE MEMORIAL

Respect and Remembrance:
Reflections of Life on the Road

Over the years, thousands of men and women have died in work zones, including workers, motorists, pedestrians, law enforcement officers, public safety officials and children.

The National Work Zone Memorial pays homage to the memory of a fraction of these lost lives by displaying their names on a traveling tribute to continuously honor them. A digital representation of the Memorial is also available.

>> Foundation.ATSSA.com

ATSS Foundation
American Traffic Safety Services Foundation

Thank you to our generous sponsors for supporting our work Toward Zero Deaths

Commit to sponsor
by Nov. 1, 2025

>> Platinum (3 yr commitment,
$2,500 per year or $6,000 paid in full)

>> Gold (1 yr commitment, $1,000)

Platinum Level

Gold Level

FUTURE LABS, LLC
Highway Safety Product Testing

Advancing the Future of Public Safety

A TIER ABOVE

Honor the Faces of Work Zone Tragedy

Jay Bone
Missouri

Kevarus Nykale
Bowens
North Carolina

Matt Dickerson
Iowa

Andrew DiDomenico
Connecticut

Carlos Orlando
Villatoro Escobar
Maryland

Trenton Gallaway
Ohio

Cole Dylen
Gustafson
Michigan

Gregory Hill Jr.
Illinois

Philson Dorn
Hinebaugh III
Pennsylvania

Jacob Matuszczak
Oklahoma

Jesse J. McKenzie
Pennsylvania

Joshua "JJ" Prestidge
Florida

Ever Anibal Aleman
Ramos
Maryland

Reuben J.
Randolph Jr.
Florida

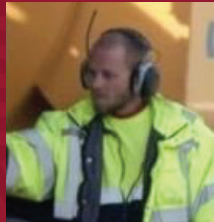

Rene Rangel Jr.
Michigan

Mahlon "Stick"
Joseph Simmons II
Maryland

Mahlon "MJ"
Joseph Simmons III
Maryland

Andrew Skupniewitz
Wisconsin

Gregory George
Smith
Michigan

Randy Westenfelder
North Carolina

*Host the Memorial
or submit a name
for inclusion.*

